

CV Tina Hyder

Full name: Christina Yasmin Hyder

Nationality: British

Employment History:

May 2009 – current: Deputy Director, Early Childhood Program, Open Society Foundation, London

- Team management and oversight
- Lead for ECD projects in Africa and Asia, migration

October 2003 – April 2009: Global Diversity Adviser, Save the Children UK, London

- Provision of technical support on gender, disability and non-discrimination in programming and policy.
- Developing and managing cross-country working groups and projects to capture best practice and promote global learning.
- Managing consultants to produce reports, reviews, guidance.
- Representation on external networks.
- Member of global team of 4 people promoting quality programmes therefore providing additional advice/training on children's participation; monitoring and evaluation, rights based approaches for country programmes in 6 global regions.

January 2002- September 2003: Senior Lecturer, Early Childhood studies, London Metropolitan University

- Developing and delivering a wide range of early childhood courses at both undergraduate and post-graduate levels. Courses developed and delivered include: International Perspectives on Early Childhood Development; Introduction to Health; History of Early Childhood Education.

1994-2002: Programme Manager, UK and European Programmes, Save the Children UK

- Specialised in developing practice guidance for early childhood policy makers and practitioners ; subjects covered included involving parents; working with asylum seeking and refugee families; promoting gender equality; inclusion; children's views of physical punishment; working with children of mixed heritage.
- Devised resources, ran training and contributed to national and international best practice debates.
- Represented Save the Children UK at UK and International early childhood events (World Bank Early Childhood Conference, 1996; International Early Years Conferences and Working Groups; Review of early childhood interventions in the Balkans for Save the Children Alliance; UK government working group on equality and diversity in early childhood).

1987-1994: Early Years and Community Development Worker & Community Early Childhood Coordinator, London, UK

- Managed a multi-site innovative early years provision aimed at ethnic minority communities in London. Duties included staff management, budget management, fundraising, publicity, strategy.

Education:

MSc: Child Development with Early Childhood Education: Institute of Education, University of London, UK

Post-Graduate Diploma: The Psychodynamics of Human Development, Birkbeck College, University of London, UK

BA (Hons): Psychology, University of Nottingham, UK

Post-graduate courses in: social research methods; teaching and learning (for adults).

Languages:

French (basic)

Publications (selected)

1. Save the Children (2008) Non-Discrimination in Emergencies. Save the Children Alliance
2. Hyder, T. (2005) War, Conflict and Play. Open University Press
3. Hyder, T. Jarrett, M. Sutton, F. (2000) Anti-bias Approaches in the Early Years. Save the Children.
4. Hyder, T., Willow, C. (1999) It Hurts You Inside. Children talking about Smacking. National Children's Bureau and Save the Children.
5. Rutter, J. Hyder, T. (1998) Refugee Children in the Early Years: Issues for Policy Makers and Providers. Save the Children and the Refugee Council.
6. Hyder, T. Roels, C. (1997) On Equal Terms; involving parents in the early years. National Early Years Network.
7. Hyder, T. Kenway P. (1995) An Equal Future: working to promote gender equality in the early years. National Early Years Network.